TRANSPORTATION

FROM THE AIRPORT

SEPTA's Airport Line leaves every 30 minutes—visit septa.org for pricing. To drive into Center City, take a 25-minute taxi ride for a flat rate of $32 or use a ride-sharing service.

PARKING

Philadelphia offers plenty of parking options, including paid lots, garages, and metered street parking. When parking on the street, be sure to check signs as some spaces are reserved for residents. Metered parking is easy to pay for with credit cards, cash, or a mobile app. For a parking locator, visit philapark.org.

PHILLY PHLASH

The Philly PHLASH Downtown Loop is a visitor-friendly public bus that provides convenient and affordable service to stops located near popular tourist destinations and top holiday attractions. With seasonal service, the PHLASH makes it easy for visitors to navigate the city for only $2 per ride or $5 per day.

For more transportation tips, visit discoverPHL.com/plan-your-trip.

PUBLIC TRANSIT

SEPTA

Hop on a SEPTA bus, subway, trolley, or train for easy access to top attractions throughout the city. Visitors can also travel to and from Philadelphia's Countryside via SEPTA Regional Rail out of 30th Street Station, Suburban Station, or Jefferson Station. SEPTA provides updated information on Regional Rail schedules and fares on their website. View a full list of public transit stations, routes, and fares at septa.org/welcome.

AMTRAK

Enjoy the convenience of traveling to Philadelphia via Amtrak. Skip the traffic and take advantage of downtown-to-downtown service from Philadelphia to all major cities throughout the Northeast Corridor on the Northeast Regional and Acela trains. Amtrak also offers service throughout the state of Pennsylvania on the Keystone and Pennsylvanian routes. You'll arrive in the middle of the action, at the historic 30th Street Station, just a short walk from Center City.

Getting Around

The SEPTA public transportation system ensures inclusivity by providing wheelchair accessibility, equipping all buses with lifts or ramps, accommodating service animals, and offering resources like text readers and Braille on fare kiosks. It also offers many accessible stations for rail, subway, trolley, and bus services, with a complete list available on septa.org/accessibility.

All buses on the seasonal Philly PHLASH loop are wheelchair and stroller accessible.

All taxi dispatchers in Philadelphia must accommodate requests for wheelchair-accessible vehicles and collaborate with other dispatchers for service calls. The 2-1-5-Get-A-Cab mobile app allows users to set a default preference for accessibility, ensuring that every requested ride is in a wheelchair-accessible cab.

Explore Philadelphia with ease by renting scooters, standard wheelchairs, or powered wheelchairs through Scootaround. Everything is arranged with visitors beforehand, with equipment ready to go at the hotel upon arrival.

ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES AND ORGANIZATIONS

The City of Philadelphia's Office for People with Disabilities ensures equity, inclusion, and opportunity for Philadelphia residents and visitors with disabilities. For further information on city services and ADA compliance, call 215-686-2798 or visit: phila.gov/departments/office-for-people-with-disabilities.

Philly Touch Tours provides immersive and inclusive experiences for individuals with visual impairments. Specialized touch tours offer a unique opportunity to engage with Philadelphia's cultural and historical attractions.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Visitors are encouraged to reach out directly to attractions, hotels, or restaurants with requests. These establishments can help assist and accommodate specific needs or requests.

SEMIQUINCENTENNIAL

July 4th is always a big celebration in Philadelphia. Here's what's in store in 2026 when the city celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

- WAWA WELCOME AMERICA will return with citywide programming from Juneteenth (June 19) to July 4, culminating with a concert and fireworks on the Benjamin Franklin Parkway.

- On July 2, RED, WHITE, & BLUE TO-DO kicks off in the Historic District, a nod to Founder John Adam's call for a day of "pomp and parade." The two-day fest will include parades, concerts, and extended hours at historic attractions.

- Reinvigorating the spirit of the centennial's 1876 World's Fair, the Please Touch Museum, Philadelphia Zoo, and the Mann Center for the Performing Arts will collaborate to bring the CHILDREN'S WORLD FAIR from early May to mid-July 2026, with programming around the arts, science, health, cuisine, and citizenship.

- Throughout the year, the Philadelphia Historic District will present 52 WEEKS OF FIRSTS, honoring 250 years of Philly pioneering by celebrating the city's many historic achievements.

- And, the First Bank of the United States, the brainchild of Alexander Hamilton, will reopen as a museum dedicated to the AMERICAN ECONOMY in time for the Semiquincentennial in 2026.

- WHAT NOW: 2026 (May 30 - July 4, 2026) will catapult Philly into the global conversation on art, creativity, and community. Organized by ArtPhilly, this city-wide festival will present over 30 original commissions and performances.

March Madness © PHLCVB

CENTER OF THE SPORTS UNIVERSE

IN THE SUMMER OF 2026, PHILADELPHIA will host five group stage matches (June 14, 19, 22, 25, 27) and one round of 16 match (July 4) at Lincoln Financial Field for the FIFA WORLD CUP 2026™. LEMON HILL in East Fairmount Park will host FIFA Fan Festival watch parties throughout the World Cup. Interested fans can sign up to get notified as soon as tickets become available.

A CITY FOR All Seasons

HERE'S HOW TO EXPLORE PHILADELPHIA ALL YEAR LONG

JANUARY-MARCH

Winter

Don't let the colder temperatures keep you from enjoying Philadelphia. You can still experience the city—both inside and out—during the winter and find plenty of hot cocoa to warm you up.

OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES

Take advantage of the winter weather at Independence Blue Cross RiverRink Winterfest along the Delaware River Waterfront, where the Benjamin Franklin Bridge provides a stunning backdrop. While the ice skating rink serves as the centerpiece, you can also enjoy boardwalk rides and games, cozy up at fire pit stations, relax in warming cabins, and sip hot cocoa—all under sparkling white lights.

For a winter wonderland in Center City, glide around Rothman Orthopaedics Ice Rink at Dilworth Park outside City Hall. After, get cozy in the chalet-style cabin while sipping hot drinks and cocktails and enjoying seasonal bites.

Winter Exhibitions

From modern art to the masters to hands-on fun for kids, Philadelphia's museums are the perfect indoor escape. Check out these special and new exhibitions.

PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART

What Times are These

THROUGH MARCH 16, 2025

This timely exhibit brings together sculptures, installations, films, paintings, and prints in PMA's collection to explore art and the economy of language in times of crisis. Featured artists—including Lonnie Holley, Jenny Holzer, Glenn Ligon, and Steve McQueen—probe the state of our nation without asserting a fixed political view.

Ice Dinosaurs

THROUGH MAY 4, 2025

Transport yourself to the Late Cretaceous period in the Arctic Circle, where dinosaurs lived year round in extreme polar environments. This brand-new, immersive and educational experience brings this era to life with animatronic dinosaurs, engaging stories, and real fossils, skeletons, and museum casts.

APRIL - JUNE

Spring

Morris Arboretum
© JAIME PEREZ

As the temperature warms and the days grow longer, spring is the ideal time to explore the diverse gardens throughout the region. Here are five ways to embrace the blooms.

Shofuso Japanese House and Garden © C. SMYTH

1 Immerse yourself in Japanese culture at Shofuso Japanese House and Garden, a traditional 17th-century replica home and a beautifully landscaped garden with a koi fish pond. From April 5–6, celebrate the beauty of Japanese Sakura—the flowering cherry trees that brighten city streets and parks with their distinctive pink and white blossoms—at the Subaru Cherry Blossom Festival.

2 A modern exhibition hall and greenhouse, Fairmount Park Horticulture Center sits on the site of the former Horticultural Hall and the 1876 Centennial Exposition building in West Fairmount Park. Display houses with tropical plants and succulents, demonstration gardens, a reflecting pool, and Cherry Allée, a row of blooming cherry blossoms in the spring, all make for spectacular sights.

3 Chanticleer Garden is a 50-acre pleasure garden in Wayne, PA, on Philadelphia's Main Line. Open from March 26-November 9 in 2025, the dreamy garden occupies the former Rosengarten Estate and features themed gardens, winding wooded paths, art installations, and more.

4 In the northwest corner of the city, the 92-acre historic Morris Arboretum & Gardens of the University of Pennsylvania has a mix of gardens and green spaces, and the 50-foot-high "Out on a Limb," where children can safely scramble about on rope nettings like squirrels in a tree.

5 Internationally renowned Longwood Gardens underwent a massive renovation that finished in November 2024. The focal point is the 32,000-square-foot West Conservatory, with asymmetrical peaks rising from a pool, giving the illusion that the building floats on water. Inside, Mediterranean-inspired gardens with canals and fountains create a tapestry-like design. Longwood's Cascade Garden, the only existing design in North America by the great Brazilian landscape architect Roberto Burle Marx, was relocated to an all-new, 3,800-square-foot glass house.

JULY - SEPTEMBER

Summer

Seasonal pop-ups and outdoor attractions keep Philadelphia buzzing all summer long.

ON THE WATERFRONT

The Delaware River Waterfront is a lively go-to year round, but pop-ups peak in the summer. From family-friendly activities to live music and performances, you'll find activities and attractions for every age.

When the weather warms up, Penn's Landing's winter wonderland transforms into Independence Blue Cross RiverRink Summerfest. Boardwalk games and arcades, mini golf, kids' rides and a Ferris wheel provide a carnival vibe, while kids and adults whip around the outdoor roller skating rink.

Nearby, Spruce Street Harbor Park continues the festive summer energy, with its riverside hammock lounge, twinkling lights, and floating gardens. The park welcomes live music, DJs, and other special programming, along with seasonal food and craft beer and cocktails.

Cherry Street Pier is a mixed-use public space in a rehabbed centuries-old municipal pier. Home to artist studios, an artisan market, and art exhibitions, visitors can also grab a bite to eat or a drink at the on-site concessions, including La Placita, which features Mexican and Puerto Rican street food from Chef Dionicio Jimenez.

Just north of Cherry Street Pier, Race Street Pier is a bi-level park perfect for a picnic or outdoor relaxing. The upper terrace, or grand sky promenade, is connected to the green spaces of the lower level, which host fitness classes. It's the perfect place to snap pictures of the Ben Franklin Bridge, the riverfront, and Center City skyline.

PARKS ON TAP ▷ This annual traveling beer garden moves from park to park throughout the city where friends and family can meet up for drinks, food, and fun outdoors. Visit parksontap.com for a list of dates and locations.

Pop-up Paradise

Throughout the summer months, Philadelphia comes alive with seasonal outdoor activities.

VIEWS & BREWS

Just north of the Benjamin Franklin Bridge on the waterfront is Morgan's Pier, a lively seasonal beer garden—day and night. Dine on pizzas, sandwiches, and other bar food paired with beers, cocktails, and wines, while enjoying live music, DJs, and dancing.

OUTDOOR MOVIES

Movies under the stars can be found throughout the city all summer long. The Fairmount Park Conservancy sponsors outdoor screenings at 30 parks throughout the season—all of them free! Also look for pop-ups at spots like Laurel Hill Cemetery and Independence Hall.

Parks on Tap © ALBERT YEE

OCTOBER-DECEMBER

Fall and Holidays

Enjoy nature's colorful fall beauty, and the city's love of the fall and winter holidays.

TOP SPOT TO LEAF PEEP

Fairmount Park is the place to go to take in the fall foliage. Follow beautiful trails—like Boxer's Trail—that wind throughout its 2,050 acres. Or, visit Valley Green (a.k.a. Wissahickon Valley Park) in the northwest neighborhoods, with miles of picturesque trails that cut through forest and meadows along the Wissahickon Creek.

Halloween Happenings

While Eastern State Penitentiary brings the fright with its Halloween Nights, it's not the only way to indulge in the Halloween season.

Perfect for kids is Boo at the Zoo, where Philadelphia Zoo visitors dress up and trick-or-treat throughout the grounds.

Families can dive into the haunted side of the city on a candlelit tour of Independence National Historical Park, Old City and Society Hill with Ghost Tour of Philadelphia.

Fans of the macabre can embark on a pilgrimage to the Edgar Allan Poe National Historic Site to see the writer's former home, as well as exhibits dedicated to Poe and his work.

Macy's Christmas Light Show © GEORGE WIDMAN

'TIS THE SEASON

The holiday season starts in November in Philadelphia. Here's how to celebrate the season like a local!

MADE IN PHILADELPHIA HOLIDAY MARKET Makers from across the region sell holiday-inspired handmade crafts and gifts in a charming winter wonderland setting in Dilworth Park.

CHRISTMAS VILLAGE IN PHILADELPHIA The city's authentic German Christmas market transforms LOVE Park with more than 100 local artisans and makers selling handcrafted goods and seasonal treats like gingerbread, bratwurst, and mulled wine out of traditional German wooden shopping stalls.

MACY'S CHRISTMAS LIGHT SHOW A tradition since 1956, the free Macy's Christmas Light Show in the historic Wanamaker Building dazzles with more than 100,000 LED lights choreographed to classic holiday tunes from the world's largest functional organ, the Wanamaker organ. Reserve a spot online for Dickens Village, an immersive retelling of A Christmas Carol, and photos with Santa after.

HOLIDAY SPECTACULAR AT COMCAST CENTER The perfect partner to the Macy's show is this high-res digital show displayed on the lobby's LED video wall—one of the largest in the world.

ELECTRICAL SPECTACLE LIGHT DISPLAY For a dazzling evening light show outdoors, visit the Electrical Spectacle Light Display set to seasonal tunes in Franklin Square.

BEING — AT CHRISTMAS Enjoy a day of family fun at the Weitzman National Museum of American Jewish History on December 25, with interactive activities, crafts, and live performances.

BETSY ROSS HOUSE MENORAH LIGHTING Gather at the Betsy Ross House in Old City for the lighting of the menorah on the first night of Hanukkah, with gifts and treats for guests.

KWANZAA CELEBRATION: AFRICAN-AMERICAN MUSEUM IN PHILADELPHIA From December 26-January 1, the AAMP celebrates Kwanzaa with in-person and virtual events that include storytelling, performances, arts and crafts, collaborative workshops, and more.

Convention Center District/ Chinatown

ANCHORED BY THE PENNSYLVANIA CONVENTION CENTER, this neighborhood also draws locals and visitors to its bustling CHINATOWN and the famed READING TERMINAL MARKET—one of the country's oldest and largest public markets and your go-to for classic Philadelphia fare.

DO: Take in 360-degree city views from below the William Penn statue atop CITY HALL on a tour of the Second Empire-style building. After, explore the vast collection of 19th- and 20th-century American paintings and sculptures at the PENNSYLVANIA ACADEMY OF THE FINE ARTS, the country's first museum and school of fine arts. Later, enjoy some retail therapy at FASHION DISTRICT PHILADELPHIA, a three-block shopping complex with brands like Sephora, H&M, and Kate Spade, plus a dine-in movie theater and entertainment zone.

DINE: In Chinatown, snap a photo under the Friendship Gate before dining on authentic dishes at SANG KEE PEKING DUCK HOUSE, which has been serving its famous Hong Kong-style Peking Duck since 1980. For an Asian spin on pub fare, head to BAR-LY, which features an impressive selection of craft beers. For white tablecloth dining, try STEAK 48, which serves USDA prime steaks as well as elevated seafood dishes and inventive sides and appetizers.

Old City

YOUR DESTINATION FOR AMERICAN HISTORY—it's the home of INDEPENDENCE HALL, THE LIBERTY BELL, and BETSY ROSS HOUSE after all—Old City is also a must-visit for its chic galleries, charming boutiques, cobblestoned streets, and cool dining spots.

DO: Family-friendly museums are in abundance in Old City, including the INDEPENDENCE SEAPORT MUSEUM, where interactive exhibits explore the history and importance of the Delaware River. Docked nearby are the Olympia, a 19th-century cruiser from the Spanish-American War, and the Becuna, a World War II-era sub. Both are open for tours. The AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM IN PHILADELPHIA offers groundbreaking exhibits like Audacious Freedom: African Americans in Philadelphia, 1776-1876; the SCIENCE HISTORY INSTITUTE illustrates how chemistry, engineering and the life sciences have impacted the world; and the MUSEUM OF ILLUSIONS challenges the eye with mind-bending exhibits that teach you about vision, perception, and the brain.

DINE: Award-winning chef Jose Garces serves up authentic Spanish tapas, roast suckling pig and classic paellas at AMADA. (The suckling pig requires a 72-hour notice.) For a distinctive dining experience, enjoy steaks and seafood aboard the MOSHULU, a tall ship tethered to the shore at the Delaware River waterfront. It's the largest and oldest square-rigged sailing vessel still afloat. For a more casual experience, sample a wide variety of beers and American fare in the shadow of Independence Hall at INDEPENDENCE BEER GARDEN. Keep in mind it's outdoors and open seasonally.

INSIDE TRACK ▷ Order tickets ahead of time for a tour of Independence Hall at recreation.gov, especially during busier months (June-August). The reservation costs $1 per ticket.

Fairmount & Parkway Museums District

THE FLAG-LINED STRETCH OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN PARKWAY is home to some of Philadelphia's finest museums, including the world-renowned PHILADELPHIA MUSEUM OF ART. After touring the museums, stroll into the charming Fairmount neighborhood to relax in one of its cozy cafes or bars.

DO: Housing the largest collection of Renoir paintings, the BARNES FOUNDATION is renowned for its priceless collection of impressionist, post-impressionist, and modern paintings. The RODIN MUSEUM boasts one of the largest collections of famed sculptor Auguste Rodin's works outside Paris. The Thinker greets visitors outside the entrance. For an unconventional history lesson, tour EASTERN STATE PENITENTIARY. Once the most expensive and most famous prison in the world, it housed notorious inmates like gangster Al Capone, whose cell can be viewed on a tour. CALDER GARDENS is scheduled to open in 2025, the first museum in the world dedicated to Philadelphian Alexander Calder and his influential 20th-century works.

DINE: For fine dining with a dramatic view, head to the 59th floor of the Comcast Technology Center to JEAN-GEORGES PHILADELPHIA. Inside the Four Seasons, it offers exquisitely prepared classic French dishes from famed chef Jean-Georges Vongerichten. Seafood lovers will delight in the inventive plates at VERNICK FISH, a modern oyster bar on the first floor. Perfect for kids is BUENA ONDA, Garces's Baja-style taqueria with fish tacos, burritos, and bowls. Famed chef Marc Vetri elevates pizza with a crisp crust and gourmet toppings at PIZZERIA VETRI.

Rittenhouse Square

LOCATED IN THE HEART OF CENTER CITY, Rittenhouse Square is known for its green spaces, upscale shopping, arts and culture, and alfresco dining

DO: Home to many of the city's top theaters and performing arts groups, the stretch of South Broad Street below City Hall was dubbed the AVENUE OF THE ARTS in 1993. Grab seats for Broadway shows, jazz, orchestra, dance, and national headliners at ENSEMBLE ARTS PHILLY, which includes the Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, the Academy of Music, the Miller Theater, the Forrest Theatre and the Philadelphia Orchestra. You'll find staging of thought-provoking contemporary productions at the SUZANNE ROBERTS THEATRE, home to the PHILADELPHIA THEATRE COMPANY, and the WILMA THEATER. See live jazz at the PHILADELPHIA CLEF CLUB OF JAZZ & PERFORMING ARTS.

DINE: Rittenhouse Square features some of the city's most coveted restaurants. Michael Schulson's HARP & CROWN offers New American food and craft cocktails in an airy space—plus a private bowling alley on the lower level. A modern red-gravy restaurant, GIUSEPPE & SONS offers a twist on Italian-American dishes downstairs for dinner, and hoagies, meatball subs, and chicken parm sandwiches in the upstairs luncheonette during the day. For a taste of celeb restaurateur Stephen Starr, reserve a table at THE LOVE, a collaboration with award-winning chef Aimee Olexy, or THE DANDELION, a British-style pub with updates on classic dishes.

When William Penn founded Philadelphia, he devised a grid system with five public squares. Rittenhouse, Logan, Washington, and Franklin squares are beloved to this day. The fifth is where City Hall now stands.

Gayborhood/Midtown Village/ Washington Square West

LIVELY DINING SPOTS AND VIBRANT NIGHTLIFE fill this quaint historic neighborhood. Stroll through tree-lined Washington Square Park, or explore the charming cobblestone streets for some of Philadelphia's most photogenic views.

DO: Explore the GAYBORHOOD, a historic district denoted by rainbow flags and signs, with restaurants and bars that cater to the LGBTQ+ community. Check out iconic shops like PHILLY AIDS THRIFT @ GIOVANNI'S ROOM, the country's oldest LGBTQ+ bookstore, or walk down BARBARA GITTINGS WAY, the section of Locust Street between 12th and 13th streets, named in honor of the local activist. America's oldest theater, WALNUT STREET THEATRE, a National Historic Landmark, has produced popular, top-quality stage productions since 1809, including a well-curated series for kids.

DINE: As Philadelphia's oldest and most famous Irish pub, MCGILLIN'S OLDE ALE HOUSE features a roaring fireplace, high-beamed ceilings, and a unique collection of innkeepers' licenses from 1860, all displayed above an antique mahogany bar. Oenophiles can peruse the lengthy bottle list at TRIA, a quaint wine bar with casual eats and cheese that complement your red, white or rosé. Asian small plates are on the menu at SAMPAN—a secret spot, GRAFFITI BAR, is tucked away in the back, with plenty of TVs for game-watching and a fun happy hour. For Latin flair, dine at MIXTO, a two-story eatery with Caribbean, Latin American, and Cuban dishes plus outdoor seating.

Northern Liberties/Fishtown

JUST NORTH OF CENTER CITY, these lively communities are known for their artsy vibe, electric nightlife, gritty charm and blend of old and new architecture.

DO: The neighborhood comes alive at night thanks to venues like THE FILLMORE, a concert hall within a rehabbed, 125-year-old factory. With three venues in one, including a 2,500-person main stage, the space has a decidedly industrial feel. Or, see intimate performances from local and touring acts at JOHNNY BRENDA'S or KUNG FU NECKTIE. Get your heart pumping at NORTH BOWL, a retro-style bowling alley serving up comfort food favorites, cocktails, and craft beer—it's 21-plus after 8 pm. Eclectic entertainment is on stage at FABRIKA, your go-to for variety acts , burlesque, cabaret, drag shows and much, much more. They also have full brunch, dinner, and cocktail menus.

DINE: Charming local eateries abound in both neighborhoods. For farm-to-table food, dine at FRONT STREET CAFE, where you'll find plenty of gluten-free, vegetarian, and organic options for brunch, lunch and dinner. Sprawling MAMAJUANA CAFÉ provides a modern spin on Latino-Caribbean dishes, while CANTINA DOS SEGUNDOS features authentic Mexican cuisine—plus more than 100 tequilas. For a taste of Pennsylvania's country roots, try the family-style entrees based on heirloom recipes at ELWOOD RESTAURANT. On the menu is snapper soup, pierogies, rabbit, and duck.

INSIDE TRACK Many Philadelphia eateries are "BYOB," or Bring Your Own Bottle. If dining at a BYOB, stop by a Fine Wine & Good Spirits to pick up the perfect bottle of wine for your meal.

Italian Market © PHLCVB

Penn Museum © PHLCVB

South Philadelphia

KNOWN FOR ITS EASY ACCESS TO MAJOR SPORTING ARENAS, the area is also a hit thanks to its multicultural and foodie attractions.

DO: Started by Italian immigrants in the late 1880s, the ITALIAN MARKET on 9th Street specializes in fresh meat, fruit, cheese, baked goods, and more. The open-air market has expanded to include Korean, Mexican, and Vietnamese restaurants. Head to FDR Park on Saturday and Sunday to experience the SOUTHEAST ASIAN MARKET, with Lao, Khmer, Thai, Indonesian, and Vietnamese vendors. Continue to learn about the neighborhood's immigrant history at the AMERICAN SWEDISH HISTORICAL MUSEUM. It's one of only six museums in the country to exhibit artist Anders Zorn. Test your cookie creation skills at the INSOMNIA COOKIES COOKIELAB on East Passyunk Avenue. Access to this secret, not-so-secret lab is behind a hidden bookcase in the Insomnia Cookie store.

DINE: Venerated Italian eateries are plentiful in South Philadelphia. Head to the red gravy THE VICTOR CAFÉ, where the servers are opera singers and perform every 20 minutes. (Yes, it was the setting for Rocky' restaurant in Rocky Balboa.) For more Italian classics, consider RALPH'S ITALIAN RESTAURANT, a 100-plus year tradition known for its veal parm. For a steakhouse vibe, try the SALOON RESTAURANT. It has been serving hearty Italian dishes and a fine selection of cuts since 1967. A changing, four-course menu highlights seasonal local ingredients and local culture at RIVER TWICE.

University City/West Philadelphia

A HUB FOR HIGHER EDUCATION, this neighborhood is home to top universities, including Drexel University and the University of Pennsylvania. You'll also find a mix of international eateries on bustling Baltimore Avenue.

DO: Explore the priceless archeological artifacts at the PENN MUSEUM, including Egyptian mummies, African tribal masks, and more than 1,200 objects in the Middle East Galleries. The INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART at the University of Pennsylvania is a free museum with innovative installations. The institute, which staged Andy Warhol's first solo museum show in 1965, prides itself on bringing attention to new artists. In the evening, catch live national and local acts at the multi-floor WORLD CAFE LIVE, a former art deco factory-turned-music venue and restaurant.

DINE: Dine on French bistro classics like cassoulet and trout meunière at LOUIE LOUIE, a modern brasserie with an outdoor patio. A pioneer in serving locally sourced, organic dishes, WHITE DOG CAFE is a whimsical mainstay situated in a trio of Victorian brownstones with dog-themed decor. A Southern-inspired menu based on family recipes and live music are draws to BOOKER'S RESTAURANT & BAR for brunch and dinner. For authentic African cuisine, visit AFRICATOWN, a vibrant community with restaurants like DORO BET, lauded for its Ethiopian friend chicken.

When ordering cheesesteaks, you'll often hear "whiz wit." This means you want a sandwich with Cheez Whiz and fried onions. To hold the onions, ask for it "whiz witout."

Northwest Philadelphia

DEEPLY ROOTED IN LOCAL HISTORY, these dynamic neighborhoods are worth a visit for their booming business districts and early American historic sites.

DO: Explore early America in HISTORIC GERMANTOWN, a rich historic district that includes 19 houses, sites, and museums. A must-see is the JOHNSON HOUSE HISTORIC SITE, one of the few Underground Railroad stops open to the public. After, visit THE COLORED GIRLS MUSEUM, a one-of-a-kind space in Germantown that honors and exhibits artifacts about the Colored Girl experience. To immerse yourself in the Northwest neighborhoods, stroll the charming business districts of Chestnut Hill, Mount Airy, or Manayunk to enjoy local boutiques, cafes, and neighborhood charm. The SCHUYLKILL RIVER TRAIL extends through Manayunk along the Manayunk Canal Towpath.

DINE: Whet your appetite at one of the many neighborhood eateries in the Northwest neighborhoods. CAKE, tucked behind Robertson's Flowers in Chestnut Hill, serves breakfast, lunch and brunch in a bright greenhouse enclosure, while JANSEN offers classic fine-dining in a refurbished cottage. Enjoy gastropub fare and Detroit-style pizza at THE GOAT'S BEARD in Manayunk, or artisan breads and scratch-made dishes for breakfast, lunch, and dinner at WINNIE'S.

Beyond Philadelphia

THE REGIONS SURROUNDING THE CITY offer many museums, gardens, family-friendly attractions, and retail outlets—perfect for a day trip.

DO: Cross the Delaware River to the Camden Waterfront for the family-friendly ADVENTURE AQUARIUM, home to thousands of aquatic species. Walk through Shark Tunnel to get a 180-degree view of sand bar, sand tiger, and nurse sharks as they swim around you; journey to the Amazon through the interactive Piranha Falls exhibit; or spot hippos swimming around in the immersive Hippo Haven. BATTLESHIP NEW JERSEY MUSEUM & MEMORIAL is an Iowa-class battleship docked on the Camden waterfront. Having served in World War II, Korean War, Vietnam, Beirut, and the Gulf War, it is the most-decorated battleship in U.S. history.

Southwest of the city in the Brandywine Valley, world-renowned LONGWOOD GARDENS is truly a botanical haven. Its recent expansion includes a state-of-the-art glass conservatory, while perennial favorites include the Chrysanthemum Festival, evening light and music fountain shows in the summer, and the holiday displays of "A Longwood Christmas."

Outdoor adventurers will enjoy a trek through the underground wonders of CRYSTAL CAVE in Kutztown and LOST RIVER CAVERNS in Hellertown. In the warmer weather, cool off while tubing along the Delaware River with BUCKS COUNTY RIVER COUNTRY.

INSIDE TRACK ▷ For a historic workout, bike 30 miles on the Schuylkill River Trail from Center City to Valley Forge National Historical Park, Washington's Revolutionary War encampment in the winter of 1777–78.

Best Men's Jewelry (2024) – LAGOS

Best Philly-Centric Gifts (2016) – PHILADELPHIA INDEPENDENTS

Best It-Girl Bags (2015) – BOYDS

Philadelphia's Rittenhouse Square is home to elite shopping. Since its founding in 1977, Lagos has been a staple of the city's jewelry scene. Although it won for Best Men's Jewelry in 2024, Lagos' collection for women is equally enticing. The shopping spree continues at Rittenhouse landmark Boyds, lauded for its bespoke men's suits and expert tailoring, and for being a go-to for cult-favorite designer handbags. Looking to round out your trip with locally made souvenirs? Philadelphia Independents ↑ in Old City offers a mix of quirky Philly-centric gifts like Philly-mascot magnets, Wawa/Jawn T-shirts, and manhole cover coasters.

SUITE STYLE

Philadelphia's hotels offer amenities to satisfy even the most specific travel wants.

If you want sweeping views…

stay at the Four Seasons Hotel Philadelphia. Located on the top floors of the Comcast Technology Center, the tallest building in Philadelphia, its unmatched city views stretch across the city and way, way, way beyond. For waterfront views, reserve a room at the Hilton Philadelphia at Penn's Landing on the Delaware River. Bonus if you stay on New Year's Eve: It's the perfect place to watch the fireworks display over the Ben Franklin Bridge.

If you want a rooftop pool…

check in to the Sonesta Philadelphia Rittenhouse Square or the W Philadelphia. The former, an art-themed property near Rittenhouse Square, offers a seasonal rooftop pool and bar. The W's chic WET Deck features a bar, with fresh juices and cocktails, plus luxurious cabanas, fire pits, and a heated pool open year-round.

If you want a rooftop bar…

visit the The Logan, just off Logan Square. Nine stories up, Assembly Rooftop Lounge offers an upscale vibe, cozy fire pits, and excellent Parkway views. Attico, at the Cambria Hotel Philadelphia Downtown Center City on Avenue of the Arts, features indoor and outdoor seating, bottle service, and a full dinner and brunch menu.

If you're traveling with kids…

you can't get family-friendlier than Loews Philadelphia Hotel. From curated scavenger hunts to dishes for the pickiest eaters, kids will never want to check out of the Market Street hotel. Luxury hotel The Rittenhouse also offers family-friendly activities. Children 10 and under can pick a gift from the treasure chest, and teens and tweens can enjoy movies and popcorn in their room. Forgot something? Both hotels offer items for those traveling with infants.

If you want local history…

sleep in the circa 1787 Morris House Hotel near Washington Square. A fine example of Georgian-Colonial architecture, it housed seven generations of the prominent Morris family, who followed William Penn to the colonies in 1682. Embrace feminist history at the luxurious Guild House Hotel, a 12-room boutique property in the former headquarters of the New Century Guild, a group founded by early women's rights activist Eliza Sproat Turner to support working women.

If you're traveling with pets…

feel free to snuggle with Fido or Fluffy at the Hyatt Centric Center City Philadelphia. They accept a max of two dogs and provide dog treats, food/water bowls, and in-room beds. Your pups can enjoy a view of Independence Hall at Kimpton Hotel Monaco Philadelphia without extra cost or size/weight limitations but plenty of pet goodies.

GLOBAL DINING

Yes, Philadelphia is celebrated for its authentic red-gravy restaurants, but its international food scene has quickly gained national acclaim. Here are four award-winning cuisines that'll transport you to another world.

THAI In 2023, Chutatip Suntaranon won the James Beard award for Best Chef, Mid-Atlantic for her work at Kalaya in Fishtown, where she serves up authentic Thai dishes like gaeng gai khao mun.

INDONESIAN Hardena is truly a family affair. Co-owned by sisters Maylia and Diana Widjojo, the popular Indonesian restaurant in South Philly earned the sisters and their mother Ena Widjojo semi-finalist recognition for the James Beard award for Best Chefs in 2018.

MEXICAN In 2022, Cristina Martinez won the Best Chef, Mid-Atlantic James Beard award for her cult-favorite South Philly Barbacoa. Its now a pop-up taqueria Fridays through Monday in her South Philly restaurant Casa Mexico, celebrated for its classic Mexican dishes.

ISRAELI Michael Solomonov and Steven Cook are standouts in the Philadelphia food scene. Their CookNSolo Restaurants highlight Israeli foods and include Zahav, winner of the James Beard Outstanding Restaurant award in 2019. Reservations are released eight weeks in advance but walk-ins to this Society Hill favorite are available for the 14-seat bar starting at 5 p.m.

Give the Gift of PHILLY

If you're looking for the perfect souvenir to bring back home, pick up one of these only-in-Philadelphia gifts.

For the history buff: Before touring Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell, visit the Independence Visitor Center, which has an excellent gift shop filled to the brim with Philly finds, including a replica Declaration of Independence and a mini Liberty Bell.

For the sports fanatic: If your loved one is a die-hard Philadelphia sports fan, pick up an authentic jersey from one of the fan stores at the sports stadiums: Phillies gear at the Citizens Bank Park, Flyers and Sixers gear at the Wells Fargo Center, Eagles wear at Lincoln Financial Field, and Union jerseys at Subaru Park.

For the foodie: The hardest part of finding a gift for a food lover is picking just one. Tastykakes are the city's beloved snack cakes. Hope's Cookies are handmade gourmet cookies (that ship nationally!) with classic, seasonal and inventive flavors. Check out Lore's Chocolates in the Historic District with more than 100 chocolates and confections, including chocolates inspired by Robert Indiana's LOVE sculpture. Di Bruno Bros. is your go-to for cheese, cured meats, and fine specialty foods. If you still can't decide you can always opt for a gift basket filled with local faves at the Pennsylvania General Store in the Reading Terminal Market.

For the arts enthusiast: After touring the captivating labyrinth of Philadelphia's Magic Gardens, an immersive exposition of mosaic artist Isaiah Zagar's work, pick up a quirky gift at the on-site shop to commemorate the experience. If you're looking for handcrafted gifts with a unique edge, check out The Fabric Workshop and Museum Gift Shop for elaborate bags, pins, scarves, and more.

For the kids: If little ones are on your shopping list, stop by the SEPTA Gift Shop for a wooden SEPTA train or trolley to add to their set. For the budding scientist, peruse the many options at The Academy of Natural Sciences of Drexel University gift shop, like field guides, science kits, and fossils.

Love City Brewing COURTESY OF LOVE CITY BREWING

A Toast to THE CITY

Craft breweries, distilleries, and wineries are the perfect places to sample local flavors.

BREWERIES

Philadelphia's brewing roots stretch back to city-founder William Penn, who encouraged new residents to make beer. Today, the beer scene includes Yards Brewing, around since 1994, whose Northern Liberties taproom has a rotating list of beers and an all-day menu. Housed in a former railroad manufacturer, Love City Brewing has a decidedly industrial vibe, with signature and limited-release beers, and food-truck fare.

DISTILLERIES

Bluecoat Gin may have put Philadelphia Distilling on the map, but its hip Fishtown distillery and cocktail lounge draw locals and visitors alike. While gin is a mainstay of the distillery, you can also enjoy vodka, whiskey, amaro, absinthe drinks, and more. Further north in Fishtown, Stateside Vodka Bar features the distillery's same-named vodka, plus drinks made from the owners' favorite spirits from around the world.

WINERIES

Although a long way from Napa, the Philadelphia region has a long winemaking history. A nice option for a day trip is Chadds Ford, known for its charming wineries like Penns Woods Winery, producer of fine European-style wines. For a closer wine experience, check out Mural City Cellars, a wine bar and bottle shop in Fishtown that produces wines from growers within a 300-mile (483-km) radius of the city.

Bok Bar © JOANA MOONO

A Toast From the Top

When the weather is right, it's hard to beat the appeal of a rooftop deck. Fortunately, Philadelphia has Instagram-worthy options all throughout the city. South Philly's Bok Bar is a seasonal spot on the roof of a former high school with some of the best skyline views. In Center City, Continental Mid-Town offers a stellar setting in a swanky outdoor lounge. Atop the Hotel Monaco, Stratus Rooftop Lounge is a posh weekend destination with a DJ spinning hits and cocktails flowing.

FUN FOR THE FAMILY

Interactive experiences will make your trip to Philadelphia even more memorable. Here are local attractions that encourage kids (and kids at heart) to get hands-on.

Smith Memorial Playground © SMITH MEMORIAL PLAYGROUND

At the Please Touch Museum, the name says it all. Kids are encouraged to explore, play, and learn with two full floors of engaging exhibits, including a rocket room, shopping market, fairy tale garden, and more. Smith Memorial Playground is a 125-year-old family favorite in Fairmount Park. Indoors, kids can enjoy fun activities in Smithville or explore the latest Play-stallation, the Playbrary Imaginative Playspace. Outdoors, the massive playground features cool pieces of play equipment, including a giant wooden slide.

Science education is fun at The Franklin Institute, where you can walk through a giant heart, climb through a neural network, race pro athletes, study the night sky, and much more. The Philadelphia Zoo, the country's first, offers more than just exciting animal sightings. Kids can ride the Amazon Rainforest Carousel, engage with birds at the Wings of the World Exhibit, feed a trio of giraffes, and interact with lemurs on Lemur Island.

Kids can delve into early American history at the Museum of the American Revolution. Inside, Revolution Place brings 1770s Old City to life with hands-on exhibits like a soldiers' encampment, tavern, and privy, while the replica privateer ship allows visitors to make-believe they're an 18th-century sailor. Kids will love the interactive exhibits at Weitzman National Museum of American Jewish History. Look for the museum's Family Days, with special programs and activities, such as arts and crafts, story time, and sensory-friendly play.

The Constitutional Walking Tour of Philadelphia © JASON GIBBS

ON TOUR

Guided tours are a great way to get a local perspective (and behind-the-scenes peek) at Philadelphia's top attractions.

HISTORY

Explore the historic district by foot on a walking tour of Old City with The Constitutional Walking Tour. The 75-minute tour explores the hot spots of Independence National Historical Park, with entertaining guides providing unique insights into early American history. With a focus on the city's rich Black history, The Black Journey Tour offers four themed walking tours that explore different periods in Philadelphia and American history, with stops at important sites, buildings, monuments, and more.

ARTS & CULTURE

Thanks to Mural Arts Philadelphia the city is home to 4,500-plus murals that adorn buildings, houses, and other city structures. The non-profit offers self-guided and guided tours on foot and by trolley for in-depth examination of the outdoor artwork. Beyond the Bell Tours are designed to include and to share the incredible stories of women, people of color, queer folks, and indigenous peoples in Philadelphia. Fans of the show will love the It's Always Sunny Tour of Philadelphia, experiencing a bit of the Gang's shenanigans on your city tour.

FOOD & DRINK

Book online a behind-the-scenes tour of the Italian Market or East Passyunk Avenue with Chef Jacquie's STrEATS of Philly Food Tours. Come hungry because tours are arranged around lunch or dinner. Beer lovers can embark on a walking or van tour of the city's growing craft brew scene on City Brew Tours. From the inventive flavors at Federal Donuts to the classic style at Beiler's Doughnuts, you'll find the city's top options on the two-hour Underground Donut Tour.
